

Employee Benefits Termination Checklist (Standard)

Equity Awards

Stock Options

- Unvested Stock options will be forfeited upon termination.
- Up to 3 months after termination date or the original expiration date, whichever earlier, to exercise any vested shares.

(For stock options granted prior to August 26, 2008 under pre-merger EDS plans, up to 90 days or the original expiration date, if earlier, to exercise any vested shares)

Performance-based Restricted Units (PRUs)

- Awards will be prorated based on the number of whole months of active service during the performance period and released at the end of the 3 year performance period, if the performance metrics are met.

(Subject to same outcome based on performance results as originally designed and applied for active employees, which includes the possibility that if minimum performance thresholds are not met, no shares would be released).

Restricted Stock awards or restricted stock units (RSAs & RSUs)

- Employee must have satisfied the requirement of having worked for at least 25% of the award's total vesting period.
- If met, the unvested portion of RSA or RSU will be prorated and distributed based on number of months worked during the vesting period
